Include your name and account number on any documentation that you are required to submit with this form. SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS

Capitalization is the addition of unpaid interest to the principal balance of your loan. Capitalization causes more interest to accrue over the life of your loan and may cause your monthly payment amount to increase. Interest never capitalizes on Perkins Loans. Table 1 (below) provides an example of the monthly payments and the total amount repaid for a $30,000 loan. The example loan has a 6% interest rate and the example forbearance lasts for 12 months and begins when the loan entered repayment. The example compares the effects of paying the interest as it accrues or allowing it to capitalize. For the example where interest is paid, the borrower pays the $1,800 of interest that accrued during the forbearance and before the forbearance ends to avoid the impact of interest capitalization.

A deferment is a period during which you are entitled to postpone repayment of your eligible loans. For the cancer treatment deferment, with limited exception, you will not be charged interest on any of your qualifying loans that receive an interest subsidy. However, you will be responsible to pay interest on the following loans: Federal PLUS Loans, Federal Unsubsidized Consolidation Loans, Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS), National Direct Student Loans (NDSL), and National Defense Student Loans (Defense Loans). On loans made under the Perkins Loan Program, all deferments are followed by a post-deferment grace period of 6 months, during which time you are not required to make payments.

An eligible loan is a loan under the Direct Loan Program, FFEL Program, or Perkins Loan Program which either was made on or after September 28, 2018 or had entered repayment on or before September 28, 2018.

The Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program includes Federal Stafford Loans, Federal PLUS Loans, Federal Consolidation Loans, and Federal Supplemental Loans for Students (SLS).

The Federal Perkins Loan (Perkins Loan) Program includes Federal Perkins Loans, National Direct Student Loans (NDSL), and National Defense Student Loans (Defense Loans).

A forbearance is a period during which you are allowed to stop making payments, an extension of time for making payments, or to make smaller payments. Interest continues to accrue during forbearance and will capitalize at the conclusion of the forbearance period if not paid.

The holder of your Direct Loans is the Department. The holder of your FFEL Program loans may be a lender, guaranty agency, secondary market, or the Department. The holder of your Perkins Loans is an institution of higher education or the Department. Your loan holder may use a servicer to handle billing and other communications related to your loans. References to "your loan holder" on this form mean either your loan holder or your servicer.

The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program includes Federal Direct Stafford/Ford (Direct Subsidized) Loans, Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford/Ford (Direct Unsubsidized) Loans, Federal Direct PLUS (Direct PLUS) Loans, and Federal Direct Consolidation (Direct Consolidation) Loans.
